THE FLOOR WENT DOWN

Edward Wells and Mrs. R. A. Livesly Injured.

ALL OTHERS ARE SAFE AND WELL.

They Were Attending a Social Session of the Elks in Atlantic City When the Building Collapsed—Many Were Hurt But Liverpool People Fortunate.

The city was startled last night by the announcement that a building at Atlantic City had fallen, and several Liverpool people had been seriously hurt.

All sorts of wild stories were flying around, and from the mass of bogus and other information it was learned that the number of injured amounted to two, and no one had been killed outright. The particulars of the accident can be found in the telegraph matter of the NEWS REVIEW, but the story of the East Liverpool people was secured this morning. The first stories said that Edward Wells, head bookkeeper at the Laughlin pottery, had his back broken, but was otherwise unhurt. The other injured party was reported as Mrs. Livesly, a widow lady, who accompanied the Elks from this city on their excursion. A telegram from H. E. Porter this morning says that she is hurt, but the extent of her injuries is not given. The lady resided on Kossuth street, and went to Atlantic City with her daughter, Miss Maude. She is employed at the Dresden pottery, and is well known in the city. Mrs. Wells received a telegram from her husband stating that he was not hurt, but the last editions of the morning papers say that his spine was injured.

A telegram from J. W. Geon this afternoon says that he is all right, but to a late hour no other information came. The Liverpool people who were in the Beach Casino when the accident occurred were almost all Elks or members of their families. They left here on Monday evening to attend the ninth annual reunion of the order, and expected to remain in Atlantic City for 10 days. The occasion last night was a social session, and the pleasure building was crowded. Without the slightest warning the lights went out, the floor gave way, and the crowd was precipitated amid crashing timbers to the ground below.

The president was standing on the platform when the crash came, and was uninjured. Thousands of people crowded to the scene, and fire department were soon at work taking out the victims. Hundreds escaped with only a few bruises, and the list of injured is small when the great number of peoples in the building is considered. The accident created the wildest excitement in Atlantic City where thousands of visitors from all parts of the country have crowded for the season.

The collapsed casino is well known to Liverpool people who have visited the famous resort, and they marvel that the accident was not more serious. The section of the floor that gave way was about 30 feet square located near the center of the pavilion. The hundreds who remained on the floor looked down into the great hole 25 feet deep, and then ran for the stairway. Fortunately it was intact, and the crowd escape without great injury although many were hurt in the jam. As soon as the crowd realized there was no more danger they hastened to the work of rescue, and soon had the injured out of the wreck.

POLICE COURT.

One New Disturber of the Peace—Other Cases.

Acting Mayor Manley has no great amount of business to transact these days but occasionally a new case causes a break in the quiet routine of police court.

Dal Burres was drunk and disorderly last night when Officer Earl found him and requested him to pedestrianate in the direction of city hall. He is still in jail today keeping his fellow prisoner, Booth, company. James McKenna, the West End man who disturbed the peace and wanted to effect an entrance into Officer Whan's cranium with a small sized stone quarry, but took a ride in the patrol instead, is free again. He pleaded guilty and when Mayor Manley fined him $5.00 he dived into his vest pocket and brought forth $3.25. This, with numerous promises to pay, secured his release from the bastille.

Andrew Besser, the East End German who was put under $300 bond for assaulting his wife, decided to plead guilty and was fined $14.15. He paid the amount, which did not include witness fees.

The fight in William Geiger's

"Duby" in East End Tuesday night resulted in the issuing of warrants for the arrest of James Stewart, of Broadway, and Robert Maxwell, the sprinter. Maxwell returned from the old country but a short time ago. A third party whose name was not learned will also be arrested.

STILL AT IT.

The Brotherhood Men Have Reached no Conclusion.

The operative potters are still in session at Wheeling, and but little that is reliable can be learned of the work being done.

The committee on law made a report, and as a result several changes were made in the constitution. A parade badge and button, long needed by the Brotherhood, was adopted without opposition, and a committee appointed to select an artistic design. The report of the finance committee showed the order to be in excellent condition, but no figures were given out. The committee appointed to tell the convention the exact condition of the order showed the number of members, the different unions, and gave a mass of other interesting data. Another important matter was the continued discussion of the wage question but of the result nothing was given out. A dispatch from Wheeling says: "The wage question was discussed at length during the afternoon session, and all the delegates were united in the belief that the manufacturers are now in a position to retire the scale that was in force before May, 1894. It is hardly probable that any action will be taken until the consolidation of the three potters' organizations."

An official of the Brotherhood talked with a Wheeling reporter on the prospect of consolidation and learned that the scheme of the consolidation has been talked of for a year or more, and from indications, it will be consummated soon, although it is impossible to do so at this meeting on account of the large amount of preliminary business. One is chartered under the laws of Ohio, while the other is incorporated in New Jersey. One owns real estate, while the western organization has a large treasury, all of which conditions must be arranged before the two divisions can be legally made into one. The arrival of President Martin, of the eastern organization, is expected before the adjournment of the convention.

At a late hour this afternoon word came that the convention had not decided the wage question, and the potter who was responsible for the statement did not know when the members would come together on that point.

EIGHT INCANDESCENTS.

Then the Big Clock can be Seen at Night, About the Bell.

When the new school building was wired arrangement was made to have the clock lighted in order that it may be seen at night. Wires were placed in the tower and as soon as the connection is made eight incandescent lamps of 16-candle power each will be used to let the people know what time it is after the shadows of eve have fallen. The dials are translucent and the clock manufacturers say that much light will be all that is needed. At present the bell can be heard a long distance, but the expert does not like its tone.

M. D. Bradley, the gentleman who has been placing the clock in position, returned to his home in New York today. To a NEWS REVIEW reporter he gave it as his opinion that the demand for a new bell would be great. From what he could learn the bell is not now as high as it was on the old building and of course the effect is altered by the difference. The tone of the bell, however, is the chief point of his objection, as the sound does not vibrate with a single stroke or a succession of slow strokes as it would with continuous ringing. He believed it would yet be necessary to get a new bell. He condemned the present one because it was made in Pittsburgh. He says he has more trouble with that kind than with any other, and Braddock had to have one of the bells recast four times and even then it was no good.

The big clock at noon yesterday was about 20 seconds behind the fire bell. Mr. Bradley set the clock by his watch which he prefers above all other time pieces or authorities.

A. R. Bell Swipes His Old Employer.

The Buckeye State, edited by the former editor of a local paper, this week contains the following:

"A mad dog jumped through the window into the residence of J. C. Deldrick, of the East Liverpool Crisis, the other day, but was shot by a policeman before it had done any damage. Unfortunately Deldrick was not at home."

THE FENCE IS NO GOOD

Some One Will Go Over the Bluff if there is no Change.

A DECIDEDLY DANGEROUS PLACE

The Railing Erected Along the Street Car Line near Brady's Cut is no Protection, and even now Leans Dangerously—The County Responsible.

If an accident happens at Brady's on the street railway line it is the county and not the company who will be in for damages.

The distance from the road to the first shelf below is fully 30 feet, and if a car should leave the track at the curve or a vehicle go over at that point someone would be killed or seriously hurt. The fence was originally very good, and answered all purposes, being a protection against any ordinary accident, but it has ceased to be useful. The ground has slipped away from the bottom of the posts, making them shakey. As one party remarked, "A man can almost tumble the thing over by leaning against it." A slight pressure of the hand will even now push it over several inches, and a hard blow would knock it from its fastenings. A glance into the ravine shows a barbed wire fence ready to receive and mangle the unfortunate who should happen to go over. The fence was placed there by the county, and the county would be responsible if any one is hurt. It is a matter that demands attention.

THE CITY RESPONSIBLE.

A Prominent Attorney Sees Trouble From the Accident.

One of the best and at once the most conservative attorneys in the city does not agree with the oft repeated opinion that East Liverpool is not responsible for the accident at the Horn switch, and this morning said:

"The mere fact that the city was negotiating for the repairing and widening of the culvert is ample proof that it was considered dangerous. This makes the city responsible in a measure for the results of the accident. Had the culvert been built out the car would have collided with the bank, and the accident would not have been so bad. I think the city has the worst of it just now, and is responsible."

The gentleman would not allow the publication of his name, nor did he say that he had been retained in a suit for damages against the city or the company.

SMALLER CARS

The Best Protection Against Accident On the Line.

A motorman, who has been on the road long enough to know what it demands, told a reporter today that the best safe guard against accident was found in the new cars; the little things brought here last week. On the old cars the distance between the axles is only a few inches greater than on the new although the length inside is in the neighborhood of six feet more. This allows the little ones a much better foundation, and they will not rock so much, thus decreasing the danger of their bouncing off the track. This has developed in the little while the cars have been on.

THE INJURED.

Their Conditions Are All For the Better, Miss Nessley the Worst.

The latest word received by Dr. W. R. Clark from Miss F. A. Nessley, the West Virginia lady injured in the street car wreck, and who is now at the West Penn hospital, was that she was improved. Her chances for recovery, however, are still very slight.

Dr. W. A. Hobbs states that the lad, Frank Greene, is better, and will, he thinks, entirely recover from his injuries.

Mrs. McDole, of Toronto, is much better. Mrs. Frank Anderson, of Rochester, is improving and Mrs. Samuel Manor, of Sixth street, is slowly recovering from her injuries.

THE WIRE FELL,

And Motorman Marsh Had to Jump From His Car.

When car 18, in charge of Motorman Marsh, was coming up the hill at Walker last night it tore down the trolley wire, which crashed through the front hood and tumbled the bell from its position. With the power gone the motorman knew the car could not move away, and he jumped to save himself, escaping without injury. The damage done was slight, although the passengers having the other accident in mind were frightened.

That Fairy Tale.

If there is anybody who ought to be known just what the Order of Ohio is doing that man should be and is Secretary Silverman, and when he says the order is still doing business at the old stand, it can be relied upon as a fact. Mr. Silverman smiled when he heard of the wild-eyed story in a local paper about the order winding up its business and said that sheet didn't know a little bit about it. The story he denounced as untrue and said he would inform the public in a reliable paper when the order decided to shut up shop.

ABOUT DOGS.

President of Council Marshall Explains the Ordinance.

"I wish you would fully explain the new dog law in your issue of the NEWS REVIEW tomorrow" said President R. J. Marshall, of the city council, to a reporter for this paper last night. There seems to have been a misunderstanding or misconception of the law as it really is by owners of canines and in the light they view it it is not much wonder they raise vigorous objections. For instance one man was red hot when he read in the paper the action of council and immediately penned a letter to a councilman asking him to oppose the measure.

"Now" continued Mr. Marshall "I hope it will be fully understood that this action was wholly necessary. The ordinance on our books is simply an emergency ordinance and the restrictions last but 60 days. It is a latent ordinance as it may not be called up in five years time, and then only when there is danger of hydropobia. The idea is not to be severe on owners of dogs but merely to protect the public and I believe all will realize that this law is a good measure and worthy of prompt recognition."

AN UNLUCKY NUMBER.

We Have 13 Delegates to the Judicial Convention.

The Republican executive committee of the Seventh judicial district met in Youngstown yesterday, and decided that the convention should be held in that city on August 27. The basis of representation at the convention was placed at the point allowed in the state gathering at Zanesville which gave Columbiana county 13 representatives. It is the duty of the convention to nominate a successor to Judge Woodbury who died last week, and it is said there will be a host of candidates after the honor. The last judicial convention was held in Wellsville, and this county's delegation was largely made up from Lisbon.

RECITES SHAKESPEARE.

Byron Booth Is a Member of the Genuine Booth Family.

Byron Booth, of Third street, the young man who was placed in jail Monday for safe keeping because he was mentally unbalanced, will go to the Cleveland asylum Saturday.

He is rational most of the time, but occasionally takes a notion that he is another Booth entirely, evidently the famous Edwin and recites Shakespeare with a force that shakes beer in the saloon across the street from city hall. He has a desire for cleanliness and was sweeping out his cell with a dilapidated broom when a reporter saw him this morning.

A WINNER.

Captain Palmer Headed the List at Washington.

Word from Washington, Pa., this morning says that Manager Palmer, of the NEWS REVIEW, won in the rifle contests at that place this week. The shooting was confined to the Tenth regiment, and continued for three days there being a regular program of events. When the scores for the time were counted Captain Palmer was found to be a winner by a safe margin. He will now have a place in the contests at the state range in the fall.

SMITBAUER SUES.

The Night Soiler Gets After the Turners' Trustees.

Before Squire Manley yesterday afternoon Otto Smitbauer, Jr., filed an action for $34, claimed due him for removing four loads of night soil for the Turnverin during May. The suit is against the trustees, Ferd Oschmann, Thomas Carne and William Sheppe.

The case is set for trial on Saturday morning next at 8 o'clock.

A Flower Show.

The Ladies' auxiliary of the Young Men's Christian association are preparing to give a flower show some time in October. Each member of the auxiliary will contribute one or more choice flowers for this exhibition which will doubtless surpass anything of the kind ever witnessed in this city.

MRS. BARCUS IS SILENT

Beyond Saying She Will be Proven Not Guilty

SHE DOESN'T CARE TO TALK

The Inquest is Delayed by Squire Rose Being Detained in Lisbon But Will be Resumed Tomorrow—The Accused in Jail.

The Gardendale mystery is still a mystery, and there are no new developments in the case, not even a resumption of the inquest.

Squire Rose is absent from the city, being detained in Lisbon, and it was necessary to continue the hearing again until tomorrow. Meantime the defense is summoning witnesses and the prosecution if such it can be called, will have a few new ones when the inquest is reopened.

Mrs. Mary Barcus, the accused woman is still in jail. She differs from the ordinary prisoner only in being provided with a chair and being allowed the freedom of the corridor. She has had several conferences with her attorney, Mr. Brookes, since her incarceration, but says little to others. A NEWS REVIEW reporter saw her in her cell today. She refused to talk, except to say that she was not guilty of the charge, and that it would all be proven in good time.

THE DARRAGH PLACE.

What Doctor Williams Says Of It—Fever From Water.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW.—I see in your paper of July 3, my name, with others, mentioned in connection with the sanitary condition of the property of Miss Darragh. I would, in justice to Miss Darragh's property, and to myself as well, say our sickness, which was typhoid fever, did not come from any of the surroundings. We always have, and do now, attribute it to the water and change of climate. In fact, most people who move here as we did, go through the same ordeal. When we moved to Miss Darragh's house it was clean from cellar to attic, and in the very best of sanitary condition. The vault was in good condition and we kept it so. During our sickness we were visited by the sanitary police and health officer. They examined the premises, and pronounced them in good condition, but attributed it to a kind of must in the make up of Jefferson street. The fever my family is now recovering from was also caused by the water from the hydrant, as we believe, and not from any outside influence. DR. L. O. WILLIAMS.

NO EXCURSIONS.

Liverpool People Will Get No Cheap Rates to the Seashore.

Liverpool people who want to go to the seashore this year will not be allowed the privilege of a cheap rate, such as they have in towns to the east and west. The Pennsylvania company announces an excursion from Steubenville to Atlantic City and return for $10, and if East Liverpool people want to go they must pay the difference between here and Steubenville, taking the train there. If they desire they can add a few more dollars on what they want to spend and go to Pittsburgh. Such tricks as these make Liverpool patronize the Baltimore and Ohio at Pittsburgh and Wheeling when they go east.

A LONG TRIP.

East Liverpool Pigeons to be Sent From Pittsburgh to Cleveland.

The admirers of carrier pigeons in this city among the most prominent of whom are Messrs. Smith, Sherwood, Peterson, Meredith and Kinsey, are arranging for a long trip for their pets, which will probably take place inside the next two weeks.

The pigeons will be started at Pittsburgh and Cleveland will likely be the destination although some town nearer home may be decided upon, according to how the pigeons act beforehand. The affair will be almost entirely among East Liverpool people, and few entries are expected from other towns.

The Democrats seem to be auctioning off their county convention, or perhaps they are only looking for some secluded spot where they will not be disturbed.

Two whole days have passed without a new story of some proposed railroad across the county. Surely the imaginative correspondents and reporters have taken a vacation.

Judging from that effort in New York we are constrained to say that Mr. Campbell has learned to make speeches since he insulted Liverpool at the Fifth street rink a few years ago.

It has not yet been announced that a committee to consider new methods of spanking was appointed at the Denver convention of teachers. Perhaps the old birch and ferrule are good enough for them.

GENERAL BUSHNELL has already started his campaign, several appointments having been made for him to speak at Republican gatherings. The general can fill them with credit to himself and honor to his party.

If a jingoe is one who would have the American flag protected at all times and the name of America honored throughout the world, then there are many jingoes in this land, and the more we have the longer will the Republic stand. God keep the nation when the jingoe dies.

BEGGING VOTES.

Driven to desperation by the Republican majorities of the past two years, and knowing full well the necessity of having some demagogic cry for the coming campaign, the Democratic leaders, acting under instructions from the wily Colonel Brice, have already lined up the newspapers of their party, and the plan is in operation. Since there can be no "culminating atrocity of class legislation" this year, and they dare not plead for free silver, because the austere colonel will not allow it, they are turning their attention to every increase in wages. When it is announced that an iron company or any other manufacturing concern has acceded to the demands of its men or voluntarily raised the price of labor there is great rejoicing in the Democratic camp, and every paper under instructions calls attention to the fact, at the same time pointing out the presence of the Wilson tariff law. They hope by this means to hoodwink the people as they hoodwinked them when Cleveland was elected, thinking the workmen of the state so ignorant as not to know that more increases are required to raise wages to what they were in the prosperous year of 1892. They want to convey the impression that these increases are due solely to the Wilson bill, but of course neglect to recall the reductions under the same iniquitous law. Doubtless Colonel Brice and his men think this a brilliant idea and expect the people to swallow it as they have swallowed it in the past, but it will require more arguments than colored stories to make the porters forget the long and bitter suffering of 1894, or drive from the memory of the miners the long strike of the same year. The farmers, too, will be slow in recognizing the beneficent effects of Democracy in 12 cent wool and 50 cent wheat. Experience has been teaching these people a lesson which Democracy can not prove is wrong.

MORE FORGED BONDS.

Lewis Thought to Have Obtained $200,000 by Fraud.

HIS OWN BROTHERS SUFFERED.

He Placed Mortgages on Property Without Their Knowing It—Figured Prominently in Ohio State Politics—Has Probably Fled to South America.

URBANA, O., July 11.—Additional forgeries continue to come to light on Z. T. Lewis. The amount of forgeries on bonds known positively aggregate $111,000. This does not include a large amount in bonds supposed to be forgeries. It is believed here that the forgeries will aggregate over $300,000. The liens on the property of Lewis in this county amount to $98,000, while the property is valued at about $60,000. Judge Heiserman has appointed Sheriff Miller as receiver of the property of Lewis.

Z. T. Lewis was at one time a candidate for state treasurer before the Republican convention. He has also tried for the nomination as representative from Champaign county. He at one time was proprietor of The Daily Citizen. He organized the Home Savings bank in Urbana; established banks at Plain City, Forest, Ansonia and Anna. In all his transactions he never sold forged bonds outright, but kept them for use as collateral security, thereby controlling them and covering up his tracks. He had most of his lithographing and printing done in Cincinnati.

Lewis did not spare his own brothers in his swindling. He received $10,000 from one brother for a farm, failed to deliver the deed, then mortgaged the farm for its full value. T. J. Lewis, another brother, has discovered that Lewis had forged a mortgage on his (T. J.) Lewis' farm and obtained money on it. From different cities in the country some evidence of his swindling operations through forged bonds.

The First National bank at Springfield, O., is loser for $2,000.

It is supposed that he has fled to South America.

The Word Made Him Mad.

COLUMBUS, July 11.—In a hearing over a road improvement case before the commissioners, there was a sensational scene between the attorneys. Mr. J. Mack Walcutt denounced Mr. Thrallkill as a "Mudsock." Mr. Thrallkill deemed this an insult which only blood could wipe out, and was about to slay Walcutt with a stone paperweight, when he was seized and disarmed by Congressman Watson. The duel has been postponed pending the production of a dictionary definition of the ill-sounding term "Mudsock."

The Free Silver Rally.

WASHINGTON C. H., O., July 11.—The free silver rally and conference held here was not largely attended. General A. J. Warner was the only one of the big guns killed who appeared. The crowd did not exceed 400. General Coxey of the Industrial army addressed a large audience at the opera-house at night. General Warner and Alexander Delmar of California spoke at the afternoon meeting.

Arrested For Pienicing.

PORTSMOUTH, O., July 11.—A large number of prominent citizens were greatly excited by the appearance of a constable from Rush township, who arrested several for "pienicing" and loitering in Rush township last Sunday. About 30 arrests were made. It has been the usual Sunday enjoyment for Portsmouth people to go to the woods on Sunday afternoons, and these are the first arrests ever made.

Roofing Association Convention.

CLEVELAND, July 11.—The National Iron Roofing association met in semi-annual convention, at the Hollenden hotel, with President John Birchell of Canton, O., presiding. The session was secret. It was stated that the meetings would consider a number of questions of great interest to the trade.

Mrs. Harriet Kinder has been appointed matron of the United States Marine hospital at Gallipolis.

George W. Brown, a telephone lineman, saved the lives of several people at Chillicothe, by catching a runaway horse which ran up on a Paint street pavement.

Near Tabler's Mills, William Foster, 35 years old, white, was shot in the back and fatally wounded. Killis Gibson, colored, was arrested on suspicion. Eliza Jackson, a colored woman, it is said, figures in the case.

Probably the finest collection of starfish in the world is in possession of J. H. Harris of Waynesville.

J. H. Wambaugh was bound over to court at Findlay on the charge of stealing horses and buggies from W. H. Baker and J. M. Haley, Findlay liverymen, and one rig from a resident of Portage, Wood county.

NEW CUBAN PRESIDENT.

Voting Going on Now—Palma Likely to Be Elected.

NEW YORK, July 11.—The Cuban societies in this and other cities of the United States are intensely interested in the election of a president for the Cuban republic, which the revolutionists hope to create. This president will take charge of the movement for independence. He will further make efforts to secure from the governments of the United States and other countries recognition of the insurgent force as entitled to the rights of belligerents.

Enrique Trujillo, editor of El Pionero and one of the revolutionary leaders in this city, said: "The various allied clubs all over the country are sending us their nominations for the office of president. We already have received ballots from seven of the ten clubs which form the electoral college. Those we have heard from are Ocala and Jacksonville, Fla.; Vera Cruz, Mexico; New Orleans, Chicago, Philadelphia and New York. They are unanimously in favor of Thomas Strudde Palma. The three districts yet to be heard from are Tampa and Key West and King ton, Jamaica.

"We will undoubtedly hear from these three today and they will, I am confident, send ballots for Mr. Palma. Today, without doubt, we can announce the election of Mr. Palma as president of the Cuban republic. Mr. Palma is well-known and wealthy Cuban.

No Knowledge of Russia's Offer.

WASHINGTON, July 11.—Officials at the state department and about the treasury department who should be in a position to know, have no knowledge of the reported tender by the Russian government to the United States of gold to make good our gold reserve as is reported to have been made about two years ago. They say that if any such offer was made it must have been in an informal manner, but from the fact that the Russian government has itself been obliged to negotiate a gold loan since that time they are inclined to believe that no such proposition was made.

The Fight at Dallas.

NEW YORK, July 11.—Joe Vondig, the Florida Athletic club's representative here, says that the club has decided that no fight shall take place in Dallas prior to the one between Corbett and Fitzsimmons. The Dixon-Plimmer bout, which was to have been given the day before the big fight, will take place the succeeding day. The club is negotiating for a fight between Steve O'Donnell and Peter Maher for the third day of the exhibition.

Killed the Girl He Loved.

NEW YORK, July 11.—In a fit of jealous frenzy and drunken madness James McGowan, a third rate jig dancer and singer, sent three bullets from a revolver crashing into the head of Rose Finn, the girl he loved, killing her instantly. The murder was committed in the midst of the throng that filled the street at Tenth avenue and Twenty-ninth street. She had tried to rid herself of his attentions.

German Epworth League Convention.

CHICAGO, July 11.—At least 1,000 people are in attendance at the convention of the German Epworth League. The convention is presided over by Vice President G. R. Miller of Covington, Ky. The time is being devoted to addresses and remarks upon the advisability of introducing the course of study used in the Epworth leagues of the Methodist Episcopal church into the German leagues.

Paid No Attention to Altgeld's Request.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 10.—In spite of the fact that Governor Altgeld requested the Democrats of the house to refrain from nominating ex-Speaker Crafts for the speakership, they went ahead and did it. It was not done without the protest of 26 out of 61 representatives on the minority side, however. Cochran, the Republican candidate, was elected.

Cornell Lost the Race.

HENLEY ON THAMES, July 11.—Cornell and Trinity Hall have rowed the fourth heat of the trials for the grand challenge cup. At the half mile Cornell was leading, but Trinity Hall won the race by eight lengths, the Cornell crew being utterly exhausted at the finish. As the Cornell boat crossed the finish line Fennell tumbled from his seat in a dead faint.

Blackburn Still in the Race.

50,000 ENDEAVORERS

Present When the Boston Convention Opened Today.

HEADQUARTERS STAY IN BOSTON.

Fine Offer Made by Kohlhaas to Move the Main Office to Chicago Refused. Los Angeles and Coast Points Want the Next Convention.

BOSTON, July 11.—The fourteenth annual convention of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor, formally opened at 9:30 this morning. Fifty thousand delegates are in attendance.

The meeting of the trustees of the organization yesterday was an important one. The chief business was the offer of H. H. Kohlhaas of the Chicago Times-Herald, who had agreed to pay $5,000 a year for three years toward the maintenance of the society's headquarters, on condition they be removed from Boston to Chicago. After a committee had passed adversely upon the subject, and reported the report of the committee was unanimously accepted, and the headquarters will not be removed from Boston at present.

Mr. Kohlhaas's offer was presented to the trustees by Rev. John Henry Barrows of Chicago. The committee appointed to consider the matter consisted of Messrs. Barrows, James L. Hill, D. D., of Salem, Mass., and Nehemiah Boynton, D. D., of Boston. The committee reported their appreciation of the generosity of Mr. Kohlhaas's offer, which they were pleased to note indicated that the work of the society was thereby recognized as being of a national and international character. The work, however, is wholly one of influence. It is not necessary that the society should have large buildings or incomes. The work is successfully carried on at a small expense, and the principals of the organizations forbid the headquarters being more than a bureau of information, levying no taxes and seeking no authority. Therefore they conclude it to be inexpedient to accept the kind offer. A letter embodying the decision of the trustees was mailed to Mr. Kohlhaas.

Besides the routine business and the consideration of the question of removal to Chicago, the only matter of general interest was the presentation of the claims of Los Angeles, Cal., for the convention of 1897. The delegates from Lower California, which presented the claims of Los Angeles, included Leonard Merrill, state secretary of the society, and Rev. A. W. Ryder and Herbert Wylie, all of Los Angeles. Mr. Merrill made the argument and urged as chief among his reasons the facts that the city was the only one on the Pacific slope, or coast, that had three railroads running into it; that its climate at this time of the year was superb and unailing; that the Endeavorers there had already raised considerable money in anticipation of getting the convention, and that the business men of the place had guaranteed to subscribe enough to cover the expenses of a convention.

Today the claims of Portland, Or., San Francisco and Seattle, are represented and the matter taken under advisement.

The spirit of the Endeavorers was given a sort of preliminary test on the eve of the convention at 19 meetings held simultaneously last night in 19 different churches in the city and suburbs. These churches are mostly headquarters of the different delegations, large numbers of whom attended the meetings, together with hundreds of outsiders. The latter gathered about the entrances early, but were kept out until the delegates had been accommodated, and then in many cases scores had to be turned away.

STICK PIN KILLED HIM.

A Minister Dies at Bethlehem, Pa., From Blood Poisoning.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., July 11.—Rev. S. H. Philips, one of the best-known reformed clergymen in Pennsylvania, has died of blood poisoning at St. Luke's hospital, aged 51 years.

When visiting a neighbor's house six weeks ago he remained for dinner. He was seated on the porch chatting with several young ladies when the call for dinner came. He was slow in responding, and one of the ladies, Miss Cope, took a stick pin from her dress, intending to prick him in the leg with it slightly. As she struck at him he raised his leg and the pin went through the flesh to the bone. On July 6 he had his leg amputated in the hope of saving his life. Since then he has grown gradually worse, death resulting from the shock.

Rev. Mr. Philips was graduated from Ursinus college and held the chair of mathematics there for two years. He was unmarried.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., July 11.—A tragedy with sensational features has occurred on a street car in this city. Mrs. Jennie O'Ferral, a young woman who is separated from her husband, was shot three times by Mrs. Clarence Chaffin, and will die.

She caught the two together with the result already noted. Two bullets took effect in Mrs. O'Ferral's breast and the third in her mouth. Mrs. Chaffin was arrested.

SAD SOCIAL SESSION.

Elks' Convention Reception Ends In a Disaster.

BUILDING SUDDENLY COLLAPSED.

Fully 1,000 Persons, Many of Them Women, Went Down In the Ruins. About 100 Persons More or Less Hurt. One Man Dies.

ATLANTIC CITY, July 11.—The social session tendered by the Atlantic City lodge to the visiting Elks, at the Baltic Avenue Casino, ended in a terrible disaster, in which fully 100 persons were more or less seriously injured. The session had just opened and only one of the speakers had been heard when, without the slightest warning, the building, which had not been used for several years, collapsed and fully 1,000 persons were thrown to the floor beneath.

Many women, the wives of the visiting Elks, went down in the ruins. Fully 200 persons who were on the first floor of the building, and immediately beneath the banquet hall, were crushed beneath timbers and lay helpless. The fact that all the electric lights in the building went out at the time the building gave way, added to the terrible situation. A double alarm for the fire department was at once turned in, and the city's fire force of 200 firemen and every police officer in the city, were called to the scene as a hospital corps.

Frederick Clapthorn of Camden, N. J., has died of his injuries.

The following are the more seriously injured: Jas. J. Armstrong of New York, both legs broken; Mayor Wolfe, Atlantic City, lighthouse engineer, injured internally; Charles W. Tolwell, Camden, leg and arm broken; P. Echman, Camden, N. J., leg and arm broken; Frank Bolton, clerk of Hotel Traymore, this city, shoulder badly crushed and otherwise injured; Charles W. Foote of Minneapolis, maimed and bruised; Detective James Doyle of Minneapolis, badly bruised and injured internally.

Terms of Elks Settlement.

ATLANTIC CITY, July 10.—The terms of peace arranged between the Elks factions are as follows: Submission to subordinate lodges of the constitution adopted last year for their ratification; lodges instituted by the two factions to be recognized as regular; payment of per capita tax to whichever side is accepted as full payment; all money and property held by Smith and Detwiler to be surrendered; question of payments of bills to be submitted to special committee; all suits to be dismissed.

A BATTLE WITH TRAMPS.

Sixteen Corralled After a Desperate Fight With a Train Crew.

BALTIMORE, July 11.—A gang of 50 tramps and vagabond desperadoes held up a P. & W. B. freight train at Bay View junction, a few miles from Baltimore, and attempted to board the cars. The train crew tried to drive them off, when a lively battle ensued, during which the attacking party fired a fusillade of shots from revolvers. A dozen boarded the engine and attacked William Lyons, the engineer, and the fireman.

They were driven off with iron bars. Realizing they were overpowered, the train crew fought their way to the locomotive and uncoupled it from the train. The engine then flew to Canton, an east side suburb, for assistance. Chief of Police Subletter, Sergeant Creamer and three other officers went back to Bay View junction on the engine, armed to the teeth, and captured 16 of the gang, who are now in jail. The others escaped.

Sons of Temperance Convention.

CLEVELAND, July 11.—The fifty-first annual convention of the National Division Sons of Temperance was called to order in Army and Navy hall with a large attendance. The first session was principally devoted to the reports of the officers. President Eavenson's report showed that the membership of the organization had decreased about 3,500 during the past year, owing to the hard times and a failure on the part of many to pay dues. Otherwise the report indicated that the order to be growing and broadening in all its branches.

Librarian Spofford's Accounts Crooked.

WASHINGTON, July 11.—The accounts of Alsworth R. Spofford, for many years librarian of the congressional library, have been held up for about three months by the auditing officers of the treasury department, and an investigation is making of the business affairs of the library. RAILROAD IMPROVEMENTS.

The Pennsylvania Will Spend About $5,000,000 This Year.

PHILADELPHIA, July 11.—The Pennsylvania Railroad company this year will spend in the neighborhood of $5,000,000, in the way of improvements, alterations and extension to its property east and west of Pittsburgh. The amount will be almost equally divided between these two sections. On the lines east of Pittsburgh the largest sum will be spent in the construction of a new bridge across the Delaware river at Frankford. This alone will take nearly $1,500,000. On the lines west of Pittsburgh the largest expenditures will be in the construction of the bridge at Cincinnati.

The company will also revise the Cleveland and Marietta railroad, making a low grade road out of this, which will do away with the tunnel about 15 miles south of Newcomerstown on the Panhandle road. The company's share of the construction of the new Union depot, at Dayton, O., will be $250,000, and a like amount is to be expended in Columbus in doing away with grade crossings.

On the Pandemic line $300,000 will be spent in the widening out of the tunnels, of which there are two left in this division. This change is made so these tunnels will accommodate a two track road.

SPAIN ASKS REPARATION.

The Interview Eustis Denies Giving the Cause of the Demand.

WASHINGTON, July 11.—The Spanish foreign office has cabled to the Spanish minister here, Senor de Puy de Lome, concerning the reported interview of Ambassador Eustis in the Paris Figaro, with a view to having the minister ask the state department to disavow the reported utterances of Mr. Eustis.

It was sent before Mr. Eustis had given a disavowal of the interview in a statement to a London correspondent. If the disavowal is made the subject will be dropped but if it appears that Mr. Eustis has indulged in criticisms of a friendly power, and suggestions that the United States would annex Cuba, the United States government will be asked to disavow the action of one of its chief foreign officials, and make such disavowal as is usual under the circumstances.

IOWA REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

General Drake Nominated For Governor. Allison Endorsed.

DES MOINES, July 11.—The Iowa Republican state convention nominated General Drake for governor and a full state ticket. Senator Allison was widely cheered, and a reference to him as a presidential possibility in Chairman Lane's speech was received with great enthusiasm.

The platform deprecates the revocation of reciprocity, denounces tariff for revenue only and declares for high tariff. On currency the platform says: "We affirm the declaration of the Republican national platform of 1892, adopted at Minneapolis, that 'the American people, from tradition and interest, favor bimetalism, and the Republican party demands the use of both gold and silver as standard money, with such restriction and under such provisions, to be determined by legislation, as will secure the maintenance of the parity of the value of the two metals, that the purchasing and the debt-paying power of the dollar, whether of silver, gold or paper, shall be at all times equal.' The interest of the producers of the country, its farmers and the workingman demands that every dollar, paper or coin, issued by the government shall be as good as any other."

"We urge that the United States exert its influence to establish with the important commercial nations of the world such an international agreement which will enable this country to recover its rights to the free and unlimited coinage of both metals without loss of one of the other from the volume of our money."

The platform favors restriction of immigration and pensions for all honorably discharged Union soldiers and closes with the following endorsement of Senator Allison: "With special pride do we remember the distinguished services of our senior senator, whose long and honorable record as a servant of the state entitles him to expressions of our full confidence and our enduring affection. We hail with satisfaction the universal desire of the Republicans of the state to continue him in his present field of usefulness until called to the larger services of the nation."

A glance over the wheat fields of the county, now that the fields are all cut, show a shorter yield than was expected a week ago. The hay crop is almost nothing, and pasture is so short that butter promises to shoot upward in a short time.

The McNabb Ice company decided last night that it had small chance for winning in the right of property case where Mrs. Dixon had a chattel mortgage, and wisely released its claim on the carload of goods at the station. They were immediately shipped to the South.

Enterprising Turners are endeavoring to work up a sentiment in favor of a field day to be held here some time next month. They want all the good men from the district to come and take part in the sports, and believe they will be successful in their project. Selby, the minister in charge of the Wellsville Methodist Protestant church, and very well known in this city, decided last week to resign, and told his congregation about it the other day. Morrow, of the Beaver Valley cyclists, won the race, but the time showed that the contestants indulged in unnecessary loafing.

A street car incident the other evening caused a great deal of talk among people who heard the story. Two well-known young men became involved in an altercation, and one was struck in the face. When the party left the car the injured man and some friends surrounded the other and his lady, and kept them there until he apologized.

A wheelman suggests that before council holds the riders of bicycles down to such a close margin that it would be a good idea to enforce the ordinance that governs fast driving. In his mind there is much more danger from furious racing on Fourth, Fifth and Sixth streets. What little scorching the wheelmen do, he thinks, is nothing compared with this.

The local Democratic blunderer made the usual break last night. It said, referring to the street car accident: "Car 31 was removed to the car shed at the power house yesterday, and where it will be repaired as soon as practicable." Nobody but an insane person would write that after seeing car 31 as it now is, a heap of splintered wood piled outside the power house and unfit to use even in building a new coach.

The Redheaded club did not play at East End yesterday owing to a misunderstanding, as the East End boys had a game booked with the Our Boys club at West End. The latter club played a tie game, 18 to 18, and having promised the grounds to two picked nines they decided to quit and play the game over another day. The East End club is playing the Third ward team today. They are after games with the Temperance club, Shamrocks and Wellsville team.

100 Shirt Waists

Came in by express Saturday morning. They have sold all season at $1.50 each. We are letting them go at $1.25 each. They are selling, too. Almost half of them went out Saturday. You will have to come soon if you want one. They are our "Justine" make, and the patterns are all choice. Small polka dots and rings, with black, navy blue and red grounds.

Wrappers. Tea Gowns.

It has been hard to keep up sizes in this department, but the big lot we got in last week will keep us going for some time. You can find all sizes, all styles and all colors in our wrapper stock at present.

White Goods.

It's remarkable the way the demand keeps up for these goods. Dotted Swisses are still selling freely, as are also the striped and plaid nainsooks. Nothing makes a cooler dress than white goods, and surely no summer goods are better adapted for hot weather. Our stock was never more complete.

Silk Mitts and Gloves.

The "Merrill" glove with the double tips has been very popular this season and has given splendid satisfaction. We are selling the best 25c silk mitt in the city. In fact, all grades of mitts and gloves sold in our glove stock are the best that money can buy.

Underwear.

We are selling ladies' vests at 10c, 15c, 20c and 25c that will pay you to buy, or at least will pay you to examine before buying. We consider them bargains.

A NOVEL GREETING.

Curses of an Infuriated Woman Make a Husband Blush.

A saloon in the upper part of the city was last night the scene of a little episode not down on the regular program. A woman long since past the prime of life was after her husband or some other male relative, and when she found he would not humbly obey her commands and walk home she opened up her stock of venom, and proceeded to remind him of all the wicked acts he had committed during his life. The outburst of profanity caused many people to stop in wonder, while ladies hung their heads in shame, and the poor husband blushed.

NOT MATRIMONIAL.

J. Porter Kays is Not Looking For a Traveling Mate.

J. Porter Kays, who is now serving a term in the county jail for that little episode in which Mattie Eoff figured prominently, writes the News Review a racy letter. He denies as a falsehood that he ever sent any of his friends or agents to the infirmary to see Mattie with a view to forming a matrimonial alliance, and from the darkness of his prison asks to be vindicated. He realizes that he is serving a term for the crime he committed, but cannot understand why they persecute him when he can not defend himself.

A JOLLY CROWD.

The Sons of Veterans Will Be Home on Saturday.

The Sons of Veterans who are in camp at Shelton Grove, between Lisbon and Salem, will break camp on Saturday morning, and expect to arrive here in the afternoon. They have been having a delightful time and are loath to leave the place. Several other parties are present to help them pass the hours away, and picnics almost every day bring in hundreds of visitors and music. Dances are frequently held, and the boys have had ample opportunity to enjoy their stay in the woods.

BOUGHT OUR BONDS.

But Lewis Paid For Them Long Ago.

The man who bought the bonds from the proceeds of which the central high school was built, has gone to pieces, but East Liverpool is of course safe, the money having been paid in long ago. His name is Z. T. Lewis, and until recently he has been a banker at Ansonia, O. Forged bonds amounting to $120,000 have been traced to him, and it is thought there are many more. Lewis has fled the country, taking with him enough money to make him comfortable for a few years.

A FEW LINES.

An Expert Opinion on the Diamond Meetings.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW.—The following lines were suggested to me as I stood in the Diamond, and listened to a scurrilous harangue the other evening:

Let the howler howl;
Let the scowler scowl;
And the Ward gang go it.
But believe the right;
There is plenty of light,
Everything is all right,
And I know it.

WENT HOME.

The Italians For the Bridge Returned This Morning.

The Italians who came here from Pittsburgh yesterday afternoon to work in the stone quarries to be opened on the other side of the river returned to that city this morning. There was a mistake in their coming here, the contractor who has charge of that part of the work not being ready to give them employment for two weeks. When they went away the man in charge of them told a reporter that they had discovered the error and would be back in two weeks.

ENCOURAGING.

The Big Knowles Pottery Will Start Next Week.

At the office of Knowles, Taylor & Knowles this morning a reporter learned that the new end would be started on Monday morning, and it was possible the old end would go on at the same time, but that cannot yet be told. The china works started today and will continue in operation as long as possible. It is expected that all the potteries in town will be working next week.

Another Circus.

The circus of E. L. Kinneman is expected to arrive today, as bills came yesterday announcing that the show would be here on July 11, 12 and 13. East Liverpool has no cause for complaint in the circus line, except that Barnum gave this city the go-by. There will be a free exhibition at the grounds at 7 o'clock.

A Family Picnic.

The families of T. B. Murphy, G. C. Murphy, Charley Murphy and Mrs. Kober are picnicking at Rock Spring this afternoon.

At Spring Grove.

It has been decided to open the campmeeting on July 25, and continue it for two weeks.

The row beat the circle at base ball last night, the score being 19-12.

Master Sebring entertained a party of young friends at his home this afternoon.

They do say that the near neighbor of a prominent young man slipped into his cottage the other night, and advanced the hands of the clock two hours. When he arose in the morning it was according to the clock, and his stay at the street car station was something out of the ordinary.

Fishing at Fernwood.

The party enjoying the cool shades of Fernwood, on Little Beaver, are having a delightful time, the fishing being exceptionally good. A number of fine fish have been caught this week. C. H. Green, of Pittsburg, a schoolmate of Homer J. Taylor, has been spending a few days with him at the pleasant retreat.

The Postmaster's Case.

Special to NEWS REVIEW

LISBON, July 11.—The only matter of interest to Liverpool people in court today was the overruling of a demurrer to the petition in the case of Postmaster Miskall against the Interstate Casualty company.

MOTHERS

and those about to become mothers, should know that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription robs childbirth of its terrors, and dangers to both mother and child, by aiding Nature in preparing the system for parturition. Thereby "labor" is greatly shortened. It also promotes an abundant secretion of nourishment for the child. During pregnancy, it prevents "morning sickness" and those distressing nervous symptoms from which so many suffer.

Tanks, Cattle Co., Texas.

DR. R. V. PIERCE, Buffalo, N. Y.: "Dear Sir—I took your 'Favorite Prescription' previous to confinement and never did so well in my life. It is only two weeks since my confinement and I am able to do my work. I feel stronger than I ever did in six weeks before."

Yours truly,

Borda Culpepper

A MOTHER'S EXPERIENCE.

South Bend, Pacific Co., Wash.

DR. R. V. PIERCE, Buffalo, N. Y.: "Dear Sir—I began taking your 'Favorite Prescription' the first month of pregnancy, and have continued taking it since confinement. I did not experience the nausea or any of the ailments due to pregnancy, after I began taking your other prescription. I was only in labor a short time, and the physician said I got along unusually well."

We think I saved me a great deal of suffering. I was troubled a great deal with leucorrhoea also, and it has done a world of good for me.

Yours truly,

Mrs. W. C. BAKER.

A Plucky Woman Turf Plunger.

One of the heaviest winners at the Alexander track this year is a woman who, from her constant wearing of black clothing, has come to be known to the frequenters of the race track as "The Lady in Black." She has also been known as "The Woman Plunger." She never bets less than $500, while she often makes as high as $4,000 bets. She never moves a muscle during the running of a race, and a looker on would never think she had a large amount staked on the race. She always sits in an out of the way corner of the grand stand when at the track and remains there until the races have ended. She is said to have won more than $20,000 on the races this season.

Officers Jennings and Earle arrested a Jersey bull on the street last night, and locked it up in Wannamaker's stable after preferring a charge of drunk and disorderly. He will not be fined until the owner appears.

It May Doas Much for You.

Mr. Fred Miller, of Irving, Ill., writes that he had a severe kidney trouble for many years, with severe pains in his back and also that his bladder was affected. He tried many so called kidney cures but without success. About a year ago he began use of Electric Bitters and found relief at once. Electric Bitters is especially adapted to cure of all kidney and liver troubles and often gives almost instant relief. One trial will prove our statement. Price only 50 cts. for large bottle. THE OWNER OF LAZZARONE.

He Has Great Wealth, Owns High Steppers and Is a Faultless Dresser.

Frank D. Beard, the fortunate owner of Lazzarone, winner of the recent Suburban Handicap, when Domino, like many other favorites in years past, carried the people's money and lost it for them, is a well known horseman and society leader in Brooklyn. For ten years he has been well known in Brooklyn as the possessor of great wealth and high stopping carriage horses, but his racing experience does not extend over a period of more than two years. He is the proprietor of the Erie stable, of which Lazzarone is the only horse of any note.

Mr. Beard's father was a self made man, and when he died left an extensive family and great wealth, chiefly in the shape of storage warehouses on the Brooklyn water front. Ten years ago Frank D. Beard was conspicuous in Brooklyn society because of his personal attractiveness and wonderful clothes. He is 6 feet tall, dark, heavily mustached and well featured. He has introduced several novelties in dress, the most enduring being the shoe string four-in-hand necktie for evening wear. Of late he has abandoned the role of fashion setter, but is regarded as one of the faultlessly dressed men in Brooklyn.

The Riding and Driving club of Brooklyn has an annual horse show, in which only members can enter live stock. In the show of 1898 Mr. Beard's entries won many prizes. The story was circulated that Monarch, one of his prize winners, was not his property and had merely been hired for purposes of exhibition, but Mr. Beard easily disproved the charge. At Durland's recent horse show Beard had an altercation with Charles F. Bates, more popularly known as Fatty Bates, and deliberately fouled Bates in the ring. The judges ordered Beard from the ring. He is about 30 years old, and his wife was Miss Maude Howard, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Howard, Jr.

HAVING FUN WITH JOHN L.

Marx Thought He Could Fight, but Was Induced to Change His Mind.

"Galveston has on two occasions owned boxes of his own and printed columns touching their prowess," said a Texan to a New York Journal reporter. "The first was a person named Al Marx. He loaded cotton aboard boats and thought he could fight. The Galveston people led him to this view by ill advised adulation. One day John L. Sullivan and his combination made a knockout tour of the country. At Galveston Pat Sheedy, in a modest, lowly way, the same as he plays faro, came to the front of the stage and said that Mr. Sullivan would be so much pleased with any local gentleman who would stay with him three rounds, three minutes each, with pillows, that he would swell his fortune with a present of $500. There were a large number of folks in the assemblage who, while not hating Marx, after all did not need him and were perfectly willing he should die, and who the moment Sheedy ceased yelled:

"Marx! Marx!"

"Thus called for, Marx was weak enough to go upon the stage for the three rounds. It was a case of 'battered to make a Roman holiday.' Marx appeared wearing his own proper trousers turned up at the bottom and girt about his waist by his gaiters. He wanted to show the public that he was simply an everyday fighter, in sympathy with the common people. This is the way Marx told me the story of the fight.

"Through the first round the big brute didn't do a thing. He acted like he could not lift his arms. He had the loneliest hands I ever see. They didn't visit me once. I thought his arms was lead, or maybe he was drunk! When I went to me corner, I says to myself, 'Marx, me boy, that dub can't fight,' and I made up my mind to lick him. At first I thought I'd lok him in the second round, but I remembered I had friends in the house who wanted to see a good time, so I decided to have fun with Sullivan in the second round and kill him in the third. I goes through the second round rapping and tapping me man when and where I liked and me friends yelling with delight.

"While I was waiting for the third round I began to figure on how I'd spend the $500 the big stiff was going to give me and wondered why I'd never found out I was a fighter before. We had just stepped up for the third round, and I was getting ready to drop me man, when suddenly, as if by accident, Sullivan hit me a slap with his left hand on the side of the face that sorter stood me on my heels, and before I got back to my feet he smashed me with his right hand, and me light went out. It was like I'd run against the pole of a dray.

"Just before I went up for the third round I noticed it was 10 o'clock. When I came to myself, I asked the nurse at the hospital what time it was, and she said: "'Half past 12.'"

"So all I got out of the 'go' was 2 1/2 hours' sleep."

SPORT ON THE WATER.

It has been definitely decided to hold the first race for the America's cup on Sept. 14 and continue on alternate days.

Jake Gaudaur, the recognized professional champion sculler of America, has announced his determination to retire.

Greene, the coxswain in the victorious Yale freshman boat, is a cripple. Both his legs are practically useless, and he has to walk with the aid of a crutch and a cane.

H. Matland Kersey is authority for the statement that the Valkyrie III will arrive here about Aug. 1. This will give Lord Dunsore more than a month to prepare her for the races.

A well known oarsman said the other day that rowing as a sport was being injured by bicycling. The latter, he said, had drawn a good many expert oars into the ranks.

THE WHEELING WORLD.

The highest banking on the Manhattan Beach track is 6 1/2 feet.

Manhattan Beach track has storage capacity for 10,000 wheels.

The chap who is learning to ride a bicycle often thinks he would be better off if he wasn't on.

Wheelmen visiting Pittsburg must have a "license plate" attached to their bicycles or pay a fine of $5.

Many if not all of the speedy men in class B are scheduled to become professional after the annual meet at Asbury Park.

Willie B. Troy, who was manager for Zimmerman in Paris, has been engaged by Austin Corbin to manage the big track at Manhattan Beach.

A year ago Johnson held the amateur record on the Waltham track at 1 minute 55 seconds, and now he has the professional record at the same place at 1 minute 55 3/4 seconds.

That Harry Maddox is a rider of wonderful staying power and speed was demonstrated recently when he won the ten mile race at the Manhattan Beach track in time that averaged less than 2 minutes 10 seconds for each mile.

Complacent Mr. Harry Lee.

Harry Lee, who, like May Yohe, has been building up abroad a reputation that was denied him at home, has been talking very glibly to a London interviewer. "I can't deny the fact that I was born in New York," he said. "My name is too familiar in America for there to be any doubt on that point." It is Henry, it is—fully familiar. Mr. Lee went to England, it appears, because he was beginning to get disgusted with "the commercial conditions that govern the theatrical world in America." This is really dreadful, but—cheer up—Lee will come marching home again the first fine offer he gets. In fact, it is said that he was extremely anxious to appear at Hammerstein's new Olympia in New York, for a very big consideration.

An Unfair Criticism.

Commenting on the possibility of an international university athletic contest, Lady Colin Campbell's Realm says: "The American universities have nothing like the authority in athletic matters that ours have. Things might easily go wrong. The baser kind of sport hangs about the American tracks, from falsifying a record to poisoning a competitor."

A greater falsehood was never printed. College athletics in America are as honest as they could be, and the English critic who declares that records are falsified and competitors are poisoned in college sports on this side of the water is either insane or is a willful prevaricator.
